President Gans took up various matters relative to the school law and went over them thoroughly. In fact, it has been years since such careful efforts have been made to see that every provision of the statutes is obeyed.

The matter of fire escapes at the Old Fourth Ward building was one which was brought up. These have not been examined this year, and President Gans directed the Building Committee to see to this. Also, at the suggestion of Supervising Principal Deffenbaugh it was ordered that fire drills on the fire escapes be held. The matter of flags was brought up. Under the law, it is required that flags be displayed on schools during the school year. They are in session and at all other times the Board directs. The Supply Committee was directed to see that each school is supplied with a flag. Supervising Principal Deffenbaugh was told to see that teachers have the vacation blanks properly filled out by all pupils, as required by law. Also, the Assessors' list of school children in the borough was ordered for use of the Transit Officer. The matter of the curriculum of his branch of the schools to Harrisburg for approval of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction. The matter of having a truancy officer was held over until the next meeting. It was said that the youngsters don't get the "hook" until after the first of September.

Although the schools will be dismissed after 11 o'clock on the morning of October 1, when the free bridge demonstration is to be held, there will be no suspension of business on that day. The school law next week. In fact, it has always been a rule to have a holiday on that day. It was said that the youngsters don't get the "hook" until after the first of September.

The matter of tuition charges for children outside boroughs and the matter of a special committee to confer with New Haven teachers relative to High School tuition charges. Connellsville has more than any other borough in the county, and in this town the matter has been noticed to attract the attention of the State Superintendent. The matter will be adjusted at the next meeting. Shupe stated that he was opposed to any indigent children being sent to outside pupils, as it was not enough in Connellsville to run the various rooms. Atkinson and Shupe were asked to confer with the New Haven teachers. Principal Deffenbaugh was an ex-officio member.

A Complaint Committee was named for the purpose of receiving kicks from pupils relative to discipline. McGinnis, Deffenbaugh and Shupe were asked to confer with the New Haven teachers. Principal Deffenbaugh was an ex-officio member.

COSTS NOT REMITTED.

In the Sunday Violation Cases, Says
Squire Frank Miller.

Squire Frank Miller is indignant at the published report that he had remitted the costs in the Sabbath violation cases. He says he did not remit the costs in the cases before him yesterday, and, furthermore, will not. The report that the costs had been remitted came from some of the storekeepers who had been fined. They intimated that the costs would be or had been remitted in their cases.

New Haven Schools Open Term With Good Attendance.

New Haven schools opened yesterday morning with an enrollment of 350 which is a decrease over that of the beginning of the term last year. The enrollment last year was over 400. Last year many of the students who now attend the parochial schools, entered the public schools at the beginning of the term. The morning session was taken up principally by the distribution of books and supplies. Actual work commenced this morning.

CELEBRATION PLANS

For Opening of Free Bridge Over the Yough By Merchants' Association.

The Executive Committee in charge of the celebration of the freeing of the Yough bridge met last night and completed some of the preliminary details in connection with the demonstration on October 1. One of the features of the celebration will be the part taken in the exercises by the school children. George H. Ball, of the South Side schools, has outlined the following plan which has been adopted by the committee:
All schools to be dismissed.
Each school to be a separate link in the chain.
Each school to be distinguished by a banner, on which is inscribed the name of the school.
Each school to be preceded by principal.
Each room to be attended by teacher.
First Ward school to lead, followed in order by other wards.
Pupils of New Haven to be lined up in line-up in order.
Line of march from New Haven to meet in front of City Hall.
Two lines to annihilate and under the direction of Prof. Morton unite in singing "American".
Lloyd J. Shaw has made the following suggestion: "Have a miniature toll house, built of any material, placed on a wagon drawn by two or four horses in the parade. Have this toll house draped in black and have signs on each side bearing the inscription, 'No more toll.' Then as a feature of the 'dying' have this toll house hauled to some place out of danger, near the center of the town and burn it, thus declaring to the people that we are free of tolls."

The Executive Committee has heard from many out of town persons who will take part in the parade, and it is confidently expected that the celebration will be the largest in the history of the town. The Executive Committee will hold another meeting this evening at which more of the details will be perfected.

STORY OF SHOOTING IS RETOLD

Connellsville Case On Trial Before
Judge R. E. Umbel Being Litigation
Over the Mining of Buttermere
Coal Tract.

UNIONTOWN, Sept. 3.—The story of the shooting of William Wirsing by his father-in-law, Isaac H. Smith, at Smithfield on the morning of June 3, 1906, was again told in court this morning, when Wirsing's suit for $50,000 was taken up. A jury was selected with much haste, and about 10 o'clock Attorney Hay E. Shady, representing the plaintiff, made his address to the jury. He related the circumstances of the case, and asked that a verdict be returned that will recompense Wirsing for his suffering, loss of time, doctor bills and loss of earning capacity; such sum as the jury might consider warranted since he will be a cripple for life. In closing Shady stated that what would be severe punishment for a poor man would not be in Smith's case, who is worth between $125,000 and $250,000. Wirsing then took the stand, relating practically the same story he gave when Smith was tried on a criminal charge and subsequently sentenced to the penitentiary. The story of his courtship and romantic marriage at Uniontown, Smith's effort to see them both and secure letters written by Wirsing to her, and other details were listened to with interest. Wirsing told of receiving from Smith an invitation to come to dinner on June 3, which invitation Wirsing's family and neighbors were sure he would not have accepted had he not been so sure of his safety. Without warning, the bullet striking the right arm of his right hand, and Smith, then, pursuing the two, and several more shots, one of which struck the right elbow, making him a cripple for life.

Mr. and Mrs. Wirsing now live in Uniontown and neither has been back to the Smithfield home of Mrs. Wirsing's father, since the affair occurred. Mrs. Wirsing got an invitation from her father, but it was declined. This case is being tried before Judge R. E. Umbel, in the large court room. In the small room, before Judge R. E. Umbel, the suits of Clark and George W. Buttermere against C. D. Peterson, D. W. Moore and Samuel B. Kell, on the one part, and Peterson, Moore and Nicholas Trump on the other, was taken up this morning. The Buttermeres own a small tract of coal in Connellsville township. They allege that Peterson and Moore mined an adjoining tract to Kell and Trump to be mined on a royalty of 75 cents a 100 bushels; and that the lessees took out 33,000 bushels of Buttermere coal.

If it is shown that the coal was taken intentionally, and that Peterson and Trump knew they were across the line, the Buttermeres will be asked, if, on the other hand, it is shown that the coal was taken unintentionally, $2,000 will satisfy the plaintiffs.

FIRE FIVE SHOTS.

At Policeman O'Brien and Frank
Rose in Repeating Arms in New Haven.

After putting up a strong fight, Frank Rose, a "Tollan" hound in New Haven, was finally overpowered by Policeman Joseph O'Brien. It appears that earlier in the evening Rose had been implicated in a quarrel. Policeman O'Brien on being informed that Rose carried a knife and revolver on his person, started to arrest him. When Rose saw O'Brien approaching he turned on him firing five shots at the officer. After he had emptied his revolver he tried to make his escape but was overpowered by O'Brien at the end of Seventh street, where he was arrested and placed in the lockup over night. He was given a hearing this morning before Burgess G. A. Markle and fined $25 for carrying a knife and $25 for carrying a revolver. He was also fined $25 for carrying a knife and $25 for carrying a revolver.

Connellsville William Brown was also informed before Burgess G. A. Markle of New Haven against him for assault and carrying concealed weapons and for felonious assault. He was given a hearing this morning and was taken to jail in default of $500. The police will make a search for a "Tollan" hound in New Haven.

NEW CHAMPIONS OF THE COUNTY

Edénborn Manager Had Roll of Long
Green to Back His Team Which
He Dropped—Fee Late of Edénborn and Old Team Mates Mystified.

DAWSON, Sept. 2.—The fast Edénborn team came here loaded with players from all over the county yesterday for a series of two games. The morning game was postponed until the afternoon when a double header was to have been played. But the rain interfered and one game was played it being called at the beginning of the seventh inning. Dawson won easily defeating them by a score of 7 to 0. For late of Edénborn, was on the firing line for Dawson and let his old team mates down with four hits, Campbell, a well known slapper who expected to do wonders started the game for Edénborn, but was knocked out of the box in the second inning when with two men down, Dawson scored four runs. Ritchie was then substituted but could not stop as Dawson scored two more in this inning and one in the fifth. The Edénborn boys started the seventh by scoring two runs. Then with two men down it began to rain, after which the game was called off moving it back to the sixth inning and making it 7 to 0 in favor of Dawson. This gives Dawson the championship of the county, winning two straight games from Edénborn. When Dawson scored one run in the first the Edénborn team's manager came forth with a large roll of money to place on his team. In five minutes time it was all taken. He dropped $140. Dawson had more of the long green to back the home team. There was no one to cover it. The Dawson shorts pulled down a lot of money on the game.

Score:
Dawson 7 0 0 1 0 7 11

BASE BALL

Experienced dopsters predict radical changes in the minor leagues of this section next year. It has been shown that many jumps are too long. Several teams in the P. O. M. for instance, have tired of their frenzied financial baseball, and are casting out lines for a more conservative organization. Maintaining a high class ball team in small cities is all right for a while, but pockets soon wear out when touched too frequently. Several P. O. M. teams this year paid princely salaries and cost small fortunes to be maintained, and owners are looking out for something easier.

According to report, both the P. O. M. and West Penn leagues will be re-organized. The Ohio towns in the former organization, Steubenville, Zanesville and East Liverpool are finding the jumps to Uniontown and Charleroi too far, while the latter clubs complain of the Ohio trips. The following remedy has been proposed, and might meet with favor.

A new league composed of the following towns: Uniontown, Connellsville, Scottsdale, Greensburg, Charleroi, Washington, Braddock and McKeesport.

These towns include three from the West Penn and five from the P. O. M. circuit. It is understood that the Ohio towns will amalgamate with one of the leagues of that State, the O. & P. Fairmont and Carlsburg are to be dropped, it is said, for traveling expenses down there are steep.

Within the next few weeks it will be determined, in the Uniontown-Fairmont series, just how much stronger the P. O. M. is than the West Penn. Recent games indicate that there is little difference, for Scottsdale took Uniontown into camp after a close struggle, while Greensburg unmercifully walloped East Liverpool. With the proper restrictions, the above named eight towns could organize a league last enough for fans of this section.

The circuit would be ideal, for all the towns are closely bunched. Traveling expenses would be reduced to a minimum. If such a league is organized, an adjustment of the salary limit would also follow. That of the P. O. M. is $1,800 and the West Penn $800. A limit of $1,000 or $1,200 could be met by every team on the circuit. If the teams are operated on a business like basis and anything like favorable weather prevails there would be no reason for any team going under.

Future plans for the Connellsville club during the balance of the season have not been fully developed. There is a possibility of the club sticking together for another month, playing independent ball, but this point has not been settled. It is hardly likely that the Fats and Leans, who took charge of the organization a few weeks ago, will keep the team going, but the players might try the co-operative deal again, as they were eminently successful in their maiden efforts along this line.

The Fats and Leans are now looking forward towards next season. Some during the winter or early spring a baseball association will be organized. With the experience gained this year, costly at times, it is believed that the team can be more successfully and profitably managed next year. The team will be strong next year. Some of this year's team will again wear Connellsville uniforms, while weak spots will be greatly strengthened. The acquisition of Stillwell, Greensburg's crack second baseman, fills a bad hole in the infield. With Tiffany, Stillwell, Eblam and Tiffany, Connellsville will have the fastest infield in the league. Stillwell has also promised to secure two excellent men, a pitcher and outfielder, to be used by the team.

With Eblam, Tiffany, Birmingham, Welsh, Griffin, O'Hara, Kiley, Eyerman and Stillwell, a strong nucleus for next year's team has been retained. All of these lads have been seen in action, and they made good at that.

The local management will also keep an eye open for some competent man to manage the team. The management of the organization during the present season has been a joke. Baseball generals are scarce, and it was the lack of a cool head and quick wit that lost games after game this season. The team needs a firm hand to guide it in the person of one whom the players will respect.

Eddie Dugan and Chip Francis, two local boys, are certainly cutting a wide swath with the Winchester, Va., Independent team. Both boys are playing swell ball, in field and at bat. In a recent game with the Nebraska Indians, who have been cleaning up everything from West to East, Chip scored Dugan after the latter reached the bases on a single, winning the game, 1 to 0.

There is talk of booming basketball here this winter, especially if the armory is completed. Basketball is a great indoor game, which the weather cannot affect. As only five men are required, and the games are played at night the expense of running a team is not heavy. East Liverpool, Greensburg, Butler and other towns had a prosperous season last year.

Billy Marlskey, former manager of the Connellsville team, is bartending with a team out of Birmingham. This winter Billy will be employed in the offices of Swamp Root at Birmingham.

Gaiser and Easler are in at the death at Atlantic City. Helms recently pitched a two hit game against the Philadelphia Giants and beat them.

Alex T. Lawson, organizer of the West Penn League, is now organizing a new league on the main line of the P. & R. out of Philadelphia.

Johnny Woodruff and Danny Hart are still playing nice ball with Catawba.

CLERKS ACCEPT.

Say They Are Going After the B. & O. Shops Team to Show Them Up.

The Baltimore & Ohio Clerks of the City League have accepted the challenge of the B. & O. Shops team of the same league and a game will likely be played for the amateur championship of Connellsville at Marietta-Billwagons park on the coming Saturday afternoon. The Shops team issued a challenge to the Clerks and it has been accepted. The Clerks say they will show the Shops up.

There is great rivalry between the teams, each of them winning, they claim as many games as the other, though the throwing out of a game by the Board of Directors of the City League put the Shops ahead. The coming game or games will show the followers of both teams just which is the best. A fine crowd will likely be out to see the championship battle.

SEASON CLOSES.

The Last Contest at Scottdale Was Spoiled by Rain Yesterday Afternoon.

The West Penn season closed yesterday Connellsville's last scheduled game was called off on account of rain. Scottsdale and Connellsville had just indulged in their practice and were ready to play when the rain fell, and crowd went away disappointed. Carlsburg and Fairmont split even, Fairmont winning at Carlsburg in the morning and Carlsburg winning in the afternoon at Fairmont. Wilson held the leaders down to one hit and shut them out 7 to 0. The morning game ended 5 to 1 for Fairmont. Andrews allowed Carlsburg but two hits. He pitched the second game and was hit hard. Greensburg dropped both games at Butler.

ENOCH ARDEN GONE AGAIN

And His Substitute Resumes His Place as Head of Family.

Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 3.—Henry Keefe, who several weeks ago played the role of Enoch Arden in returning to his wife at Clarlington, C. after an absence dating from the steamer Scitolo disaster, 25 years ago, has packed up his belongings and left again for parts unknown.

Keefe was supposed to have been killed in the steamer disaster. The reason for his leaving home this time is said to have been because Mrs. Keefe would not deed him a portion of her estate, she being quite wealthy. Samuel Dixon, who had been married to Mrs. Keefe almost ever since the first husband's departure, has again resumed domestic relations and thus a new chapter is recorded.

WHO SAID JAMESTOWN?

The Jamestown Exposition has ripened into a highly interesting show. It isn't an industrial exposition where you see the wheels go round, but as an historical, patriotic, and truly American epitome of three hundred years of civilization and development, it is inviting to every citizen. From the John Smith episode to the present year the course of development, of the South especially, is traced by object, picture, manuscript and reproduction. Thirty States have erected buildings typical of the olden time, and filled them with reminiscent objects. The National Government is the chief exhibitor, but there are thousands of others that lend interest and diversity to the general effect. The buildings are rich in architectural suggestion and the grounds, naturally attractive, are beautified by the skill of florist and landscape gardener. The special features make each day memorable. In athletics, both by land and water, the representation is unique, while the military and naval demonstrations are stirring and spectacular.

The Exposition enjoys the merit of nearness; it is right in our midst. A day or a night's ride from this section brings one to the grounds.

The Pennsylvania railroad offers attractive service via Philadelphia and its "Cape Charles Route," by its routes via Baltimore and the Chesapeake lines, via Washington and the Potomac River line, and via Washington and Richmond. The tickets are reasonable and the price varies according to the route and the length of the stay.

The fair grounds are swept by cooling breezes, and as a vacation destination there is nothing else to compare it with this season.

FEATHERMAN & SUMBERG,

Mister Brown
Of Shopless Town

Behold a man of Shopless Town:
His name is Obadiah Brown.
He says the town does not improve,
But runs along its ancient groove.
He'd like to see it spread and grow,
And yet he does not help, you know.
Instead of buying things for sale
Right here in town, he's sent by mail
For many years and bought his things
From those faroff Man Order Kings.
No wonder, Obadiah Brown,
This home of yours is Shopless Town!

THE SCHOOLS OPEN FOR TERM.

James Haskins Gets a Strong Dose
for Missions—Black Catery Plant
Bought by Carbon Steel Company.

SCOTSDALE, Sept. 3.—The new term of nine months of school began today with about 900 children enrolled in the schools. The meeting of the directors and teachers was held at the Chestnut street building Monday afternoon, when the contracts were signed for the year. President Robert Skemp made an address in which he spoke of school teaching as being about the hardest work physically and mentally to be encountered and added that the new idea of education is taking into account the strengthening of the physical and spiritual forces as well as those of the mentality. Secretary I. O. Hoss and Principal Ed Reid also spoke. The teachers it seems had no one to speak for them, not being used to talking back. For the first time in two years there failed to be a meeting of Council on the regular meeting night, the meeting going over for the lack of one member to make up a quorum. One of the absent members has not been present for months another had two families of children to take care of, another was on night turn at the mill, another had serious illness in his family, another who missed but one meeting so far was ill, and T. R. Elcher was a juror on the case of the Commonwealth against Harry Cochran, charged with the murder of Kate Pettigrew, a 16 year old girl of Appol. There will be a meeting on Thursday evening.

It is reported that the Black Catery Company, which has a large new plant at East Home Scottdale, has been bought by the Carbon Steel Co. of Pittsburgh.

The schools of East Huntingdon township began business on Monday with large attendance. Two new schools have been added during the year.

Today and tomorrow are the last days to register to get a vote this fall, and the assessors are sitting today and tomorrow at the polling places to correct the list of taxpayers. Don't forget to register.

James Haskins colored was in the toils of the law Monday being brought in by Chief Frank McCudden, after Haskins, indulged in some scrapping with the big chief Burgess Ferguson fined him $40 and costs in all on three charges $5 for being drunk and disorderly $25 for resisting an officer and $10 for resisting an officer and $10 for carrying concealed weapons on 15 days to the lockup. Haskins is lying in the cage this morning.

J. Pluvius visited Scottdale very strong on Monday and in consequence the final game of the West Penn League season had to be abandoned the rain starting business just when it was time to call the game.

SHOT DOWN BY BURGLAR.

Mob Chases Murderer Who Kills Himself When Cornered.

LYNDHURST, N. J., Sept. 3.—George Cassidy, a policeman was shot and killed here while trying to arrest two burglars who had been caught in the act of robbing a store. The burglars were pursued by a crowd and rather than submit to capture one of them killed himself in a swamp. The other escaped.

Cassidy had arrested the men and had started with his prisoners for the station house when one of them whipped a revolver from his pocket and pressing it against Cassidy's coat pulled the trigger. Cassidy fell dead and the men ran away. The news of the shooting aroused the neighborhood and a crowd gave chase. The burglars separated one of them making for the Passaic river. When the crowd pressed too close the burglar turned and fired a fusillade of shots but no one was hit. The burglar then ran into the swamp trying to find a place where he could swim the river but the mud and slime dragged him down and he became exhausted. Realizing that he would be captured he used the last cartridge in his revolver to shoot himself. He was dead when his pursuers reached him.

WOMAN STARTS RIOT.

Ridicules Union Men for Riding on Non-Union Cars.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 3.—A labor riot which but for the timely arrival of the police would have assumed formidable proportions resulted in the injury of four non-union street car employees. The trouble was started by a woman.

The parade had just broken up and the participants were awaking on the cars to go to a park when a woman refused to ride on a car operated by non-union men and jeered at the unionists for doing so. Exhorting them to "pull the seats off" her words inflamed the crowd immediately. As the street car men have already voted to strike and will probably walk out Thursday night four cars operated by non-union crews were at the station and the woman, A. B. Witten house and Conductor F. F. Gidley were injured with stones while two other non-union carmen were less severely beaten. A riot call and the prompt appearance of the police prevented the trouble from spreading among the thousands of union men massed in the neighborhood.

NEARLY DEAD FROM HUNGER.

Young Swede Tramps Streets With Money Order in Pocket.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—An unusual case has come to the attention of the police. They found Richard Reynolds, a young Swedish blacksmith who came here from Watertown, N. Y. to see Prince Wilhelm wandering about the streets in a starving condition despite the fact that he had in his possession a money order calling for $10.00.

The money order reached Reynolds Sunday morning and as it was Sunday he could not get it cashed. Reynolds who has nothing to eat since Friday wandered about until night when nearly insane from hunger, he appeared to the police. He was taken to a restaurant, where he ate ravenously.

JOHN GILMORE DEAD.

Prominent Resident of Uniontown and Widely Known Over the County Expired Yesterday.

John Gilmore, one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of the county and a member of the most genial and companionable of men, passed away shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday at his home, a splendid home in the McCallum town, just east of Uniontown, after an illness of several months. Although Mr. Gilmore had been ill for some time before it was not until a few days that the nature of his illness was diagnosed. Bright's disease was the fatal malady. He was 52 years old.

John Gilmore was a member of one of the oldest and most respected families of Fayette county. He was the son of John Samue Anderson and Elvira Plumer Gilmore and was born in Uniontown on February 23, 1855. His father was one of the distinguished jurists of the county serving by appointment from 1884 to 1891. He died in 1895 and surviving until his death in 1907. His mother was the daughter of a well known family of Pennsylvania and accomplished daughter of John and Elvira Plumer of Venango county. She was also one of the best known and most representative families in Western Pennsylvania.

Young John Gilmore was educated with great care and solitude. He attended the common and selected schools of Uniontown and the Hill school at Pittsburg, Pa. finishing his education at La Fayette College at Easton. Shortly after leaving college he was married to Miss Mary Bell of Uniontown. He survives him with two sons, Guy and John Gilmore, superintendent in management of the Gilmore Coal and Coke Company with works at Plum and Gilmore in Fayette county, and Samue A. Gilmore, it being for the West Penn Railway Company at Pittsburg, Pa. Surviving, it so as his sister Mrs. A. W. Blum, Mrs. Elvira Mica and Mrs. Pearl Adams, all of Uniontown and one brother Henry F. Gilmore of Fairmont, W. Va.

For many years Mr. Gilmore had a more delightful personality than John Gilmore. Although the beneficiary of a careful and brilliant education, he was not a student in the pedantic sense of the term. He cultivated the simple habits of life. Though amply supplied with the good things of life, he was unostentatious to a marked degree. He loved sham and by a day went unobtrusively about his many kindred and children, while he was full of the highest impulses of the heart.

The funeral will be held some time on Thursday, the hour has not been set.

THE KIDNAPPED MILLIONAIRES

A TALE OF WALL STREET AND THE TROPICS

"Vincent—L. Sylvester Vincent, of Chicago," Mr. Vincent replied.

"Oh yes, you are the man I arrested in St. Louis last week."

Seymour then explained to the assembled Vincent the mistake that had been made, and all joined in a laugh which followed.

Mr. Carmody informed Capt. Baldwin that there was a quantity of valuable stores on board "The Jumping Jupiter." The naphtha launch was lowered and several sailors descended to transfer all articles worth saving from the raft to the yacht. Mr. Vincent returned to "The Jumping Jupiter" and rescued "Socks," who was voted a mascot of exceptional ability.

When Sidney Hammond came on board the yacht he was given a reception which brought a blush of pleasure to his bronzed and handsome face.

"The Jumping Jupiter" was abandoned to "his" fate.

CHAPTER XXIV.

HOME AGAIN.

"How far are we from Vera Cruz, Capt. Baldwin?"

"About 25 miles, Mr. Carmody."

"You may proceed to that harbor, at once," directed Mr. Carmody.

Mr. Carmody then called a conference in the social hall of the "Helen Carmody." There were present Palmer J. Morton, John M. Rockwell, R. J. Kent, Sidney Hammond, Sidney Hammond and William Chalmers.

"We will be in Vera Cruz in an hour," said Mr. Carmody, when all were seated around the center table.

"It is now 9:30 o'clock. We will be in telegraphic communication with New York by 11 o'clock, Vera Cruz time—which is one o'clock New York time."

It is unnecessary to disguise the fact that the returning to civilization is a matter fraught with much importance from a business standpoint. I am not speaking for myself, as I have no interests which have been seriously menaced by my absence, or which will be affected by my return. This is not true of some present. They have been made to suffer financial loss by their detention. It is by no means certain that they have the right to recoup some of their losses. Now, I am not unacquainted with newspaper men, their methods and ambitions. I am going to ask Mr. Chalmers to waive his rights as a journalist for an hour after our arrival in Vera Cruz, in order that we may send the news of our safe return to our families, and that we may then notify our business associates, and forward such instructions as shall protect our interests in stocks and securities. I am aware that we are under many obligations to Mr. Chalmers, and to the New York Record, but I assure him that neither he nor his paper will suffer by granting this favor."

Mr. Chalmers was on his feet the moment Mr. Carmody ceased speaking.

"I am only too happy to grant that request," he said. "Through no fault of the Record, or of its editor, Robert Van Horn, we are implicated in this affair through the unfortunate acts of a man who has been one of our correspondents. Although this is the most important piece of news in recent years, and one in which the paper is entitled to a fair share of credit, I recognize that you gentlemen have interests which are paramount. I will send no message to the Record until the stock exchange has closed in New York. Our paper will take its chance with the others. After that hour I shall expect the thorough co-operation of you gentlemen, so that we may be able to place on the wires the complete history of this case, with such acknowledgment of the part played by the paper as you choose to authorize."

"That is the way I like to hear a man talk," Mr. Chalmers said. Mr. Morton said: "That is business. I will say to you that I will break my rule and write a statement which you can use if it has any value. Your representatives will find me ready to talk on any subject connected with this affair."

The same promise was made by the other magnates.

"Mr. Seymour and Mr. Stevens are experienced and discreet newspaper men," said Mr. Chalmers. "It takes time to write and put on the wires a story like this. I ask that they be allowed to begin work at once, and I will be responsible that not a word is telegraphed which can appear on the streets of New York before three o'clock this afternoon."

"They shall have every opportunity," said Mr. Carmody. "We will turn this room into a newspaper office right now. Send for Mr. Seymour and Mr. Stevens and we will get to work."

"You can draft me as a reporter," said Sidney Hammond. "I can help out on some of the incidents on the island."

"You see me about Hammond," said Mr. Kent. "He is too modest to tell you the truth about himself."

Seymour and Jack Stevens were sent for and they proceeded to their task with the tact, rapidity and verbiage of experienced newspaper men. They speedily obtained the framework of the story. Upon this they built, incident by incident, the tissue and body of a well-rounded narrative. Mr. Chalmers became a reporter for the first time in years. He suggested the basis of eight signed statements—L. Sylvester Vincent was not expected. By the time the "Helen Carmody" was anchored in Vera Cruz harbor Mr. Chalmers had the story well in hand. He went ashore with the rescued magnates and with them to the telegraph office. Chalmers found the manager and arranged for the use of all available wires on and after one o'clock. Mr. Morton and his companions filed telegrams to relatives and business associates and once more was in touch with New York.

After a conference with Mr. Chalmers it was agreed not to leave Vera Cruz until late in the evening. It was planned to steam direct to New Orleans en route from there by special train to New York. Mr. Chalmers insisted that he have all the time necessary to prepare and forward his story. At 12:40 Chalmers filed his first news bulletin, and from that moment until ten o'clock at night a corps of telegraph operators was busy clicking the greatest "beat" ever recorded in the history of modern journalism.

It may be mentioned in passing that the receipt in New York of private telegrams from the missing millionaires was followed on the exchange by enormous buying of stocks. There were no accounts for the consequent rise in prices, and for some time the market stoutly resisted the advance. Then quotations began to rise slowly at first, but with increasing momentum. Something had happened. What was it?

The news of the Wall Street boom came over the telephone to the news paper office. Mr. Sharp, the acting editor of the Evening Record, was on the alert. In a fever of excitement he awaited the expected word from Mr. Chalmers or one of his assistants. The rival paper, the Evening Gazette, was out with an extra containing a rumor that the lost magnates had been located in South Africa. Mr. Sharp could stand it no longer. It was two o'clock and the market was waiting for Wall Street, as was mystified as ever. For a week Sharp had held in type the most startling headlines ever designed in the office. He had been deceived by the "Helen Carmody" had sailed from Havana and he knew her destination. It was the day for news from the abducted men. Sharp decided to "take a chance." The following was his first effort in journalism, which covered the first page and crowded the title of the paper into small type in the upper left-hand corner:

THE EVENING RECORD.

New York, May 24.

RESCUED BY THE RECORD!!!

The New York Record Accomplishes the Greatest Achievement in the History of Journalism!!!

RESCUES THE MISSING MILLIONAIRES!!!

Palmer J. Morton, John M. Rockwell, Andrew Carter, R. J. Kent, William Chalmers, Sidney Hammond and L. Sylvester Vincent.

Rescued from the Mexican Coast by an Expedition Fitted out by the New York Record!!!

Wall Street in a Flurry of Excitement!!!

The brief article which followed contained no information not stated in the headlines, and there was no date line at the head of it. Mr. Sharp was busy preparing a second and more circumstantial announcement when a telegram was received from Mr. Chalmers. A few minutes later the second Record extra was on the street. It read:

"Vera Cruz, Mexico, May 16.—The expedition in charge of William Chalmers, managing editor of the New York Record, has effected the rescue of Palmer J. Morton, John M. Rockwell, Andrew Carter, R. J. Kent, Sidney Hammond and L. Sylvester Vincent. The kidnapping of these distinguished financiers is the most sensational crime in history. On the evening of May 1, seven of the men were lured on board the steamer yacht "Shark," owned by Walter B. Hestor, the famous amateur newspaper correspondent. Hestor planned the crime and executed it with the cunning of a man. He lured Messrs. Morton, Kent, Rockwell, Carmody, Hestor and Pence to join him at a dinner on board the "Shark," at which time an important business matter was to be discussed. Mr. Sidney Hammond was invited as legal counsel for Mr. Hestor. L. Sylvester Vincent was present to discuss another business matter with Mr. Carmody. Once out in the Atlantic, Hestor refused to return his guests to New York. He permitted them to send ashore the letters which were received by their relatives, and then steamed south. By midnight they were on the coast of Mexico, on the sixth day—at a point south of Vera Cruz, on a spot which he stated was an island. Hestor had fitted up a bungalow on the edge of a lake, connected by a narrow inlet to the Gulf of Mexico. That night Hestor sailed away in the "Shark."

"By indefatigable effort, the New York Record traced this crime to

Walter B. Hestor. His detective force, under the charge of John Hestor, located the bungalow. Spies credited to Hestor and his captain, "What will not do, Helen," said Mr. Carmody. "Capt. Baldwin is right. You join Mrs. White and remain in the saloon until I call you."

Mrs. Helen glanced appealingly at Mr. Chalmers, but received no encouragement in her meditated rebellion; so she obeyed and went to the lower deck.

Sidney Hammond came rushing forward.

cannot hurt us, can they, papa? Let me stay on deck. I want to see that awful Mr. Hestor and his captain."

Take that memorable Wednesday night, the stomachic stomach, "Helen Carmody" left the lights of Vera Cruz thinking in the distance and started on her 500 mile journey to New Orleans. All were fatigued from the excitement of the day, and it was late on Thursday morning when they met again around the breakfast table in the spacious dining cabin. It was a merry and a contented party, and the day around the board was enough to escape the fatal 11-11. Bernard Seymour, being superstitious, counted three times before he sat down to the breakfast table. He was satisfied, especially due to William Chalmers, our opinion, this forecast of disaster was an irresponsible individual and a conspiracy for any national purpose. Signed:
